Professional Designations

Sharon D. Elliott holds the professional designations of CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ ("CFP®") and Certified Trust and Financial Advisor (CTFA).

The CFP®, CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and certification marks are financial planning credentials awarded by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. ("CFP Board") to individuals who meet its education, examination, work experience, and ethics requirements. Eligible candidates must have at least a bachelor's degree (or its equivalent) in any discipline from an accredited college or university in order to obtain a CFP® certification. The candidate also must pass an examination, have three years of personal financial planning experience, and meet the CFP Board's ethical requirements. To maintain the certification, the CFP Board requires individuals to complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years and renew an agreement to be bound by its Standards of Professional Conduct.

The CTFA certification is a wealth management and trust related credential awarded by the Institute of Certified Bankers (the "ICB") to those individuals who satisfy its education, experience and ethics requirements. The CTFA certification is designed to establish a recognized standard of knowledge and competence for the trust and wealth advisory field. Eligible candidates are required to have either a minimum of three (3) years' experience in wealth management as well as completion of an ICB-approved wealth management training program, five (5) years' experience in wealth management and a bachelor's degree, or ten (10) years' experience in wealth management. Candidates are further required to provide a professional reference attesting to their ethical character and certification qualifications, and sign the ICB's Professional Code of Ethics statement. In order to maintain the designation, recipients must complete 45 hours of continuing education every three years, and adhere to ICB's Code of Ethics.

For additional information about either of these credentials, please refer directly to the website of the issuing organization.
